Internet in Today's Life

Nowadays almost everyone in the world has contact with using the internet. The internet has changed our life in many ways as follow;

First of all, internet provides a lot of useful information. Searching the internet with Google, we can find everything we want. We can also do shopping using the internet transfer money from our bank account on the internet which is faster than going to the bank.

Transferring money in traditional way takes about a day. However, using the internet we can do this in few seconds even on Saturdays and Sundays.

Secondly, we can send email through the internet. Emails can reach their destinations within a few seconds. You can email whatever you want, for example movies, photos and songs. Besides, the costs of sending Emails are much cheaper than sending normal letters.

Thirdly, the internet provides the facility to get online education. Many websites of different universities provide lectures and tutorials on different subjects or topics. It is very cheap and easy way to get education.

However, there are some disadvantages of the internet.

Firstly, today, the internet is the most popular source of viruses. Most of the viruses transfer from one computer to another through e-mail or when information is downloaded on the internet. They can affect the performance of our computers and damage valuable data and software stored in our computers.

Secondly, porn is a very serious issue when it comes to young children. There are thousands of porn sites on the internet that can be a dangerous factor to let children use the internet.

To sum up, the internet has numerous advantages but it also has disadvantages as well. Therefore, people need to be extremely aware of the disadvantages and control the way it's used.
